Shift Sewage Farm, demand residents

Mysuru, Nov. 2 (RK&BCT)- With no respite from the stink of the garbage piled up enormously at the Excel Solid Waste Management Plant or Sewage Farm at Vidyaranyapuram, the residents of Vidyaranyapuram, J.P. Nagar, Kanakagiri, Gundu Rao Nagar, Vishveshwaranagar and surrounding areas are demanding the authorities to shift the waste management plant. Nearly two lakh tonnes of waste has been accumulated at the plant at present.

In the vicinity of the Waste Treatment Plant are more than 24 apartment complexes housing about 2,000 flats with 9,000-odd residents. Added to that are about 20 schools and colleges with thousands of students and all of them continue to suffer the unbearable stench from the garbage accumulated at the plant, according to the residents.

The demand of the residents was placed before Mysuru District Minister V. Somanna who inspected the vexed Excel Solid Waste Management Plant this morning.

District Minister V. Somanna along with MP Pratap Simha was mobbed by students during their inspection of Excel Solid Waste Management Plant in city this morning.

Food sector in FF mode

Nation's economy, according to analysts of its health, has slowed down, a feature corroborated by global monitoring and rating agencies. Food sector, more in the realm of food processing industry than in that of agriculture, is in Fast Forward (FF) mode, according to the Chief Executives of leading companies producing packaged foods under their respective flourishing brands, not to forget the large number of players doing roaring business with unbranded, but patronised by their captive consuming public across the country, including Mysuru. While the country's food basket, zealously kept brimming to the full year after year, thanks to the sweat and toil of the agricultural workforce, is ravaged by rodents devouring standing crops overnight and insects burrowing into the core of grains rendering the produce unfit for human consumption, food processing industry has done yeomen service by transforming food grains and horticultural crops in their raw state to products that endure for several months, presenting them in packaged form, thanks to the technologies of different institutions, among which Mysuru-based Central Food Technological Research Institute (CFTRI) stands out.

Guestimates of food grains and horticultural produce suffering losses to the extent of nearly one-third of the total produced in the field should make both entrepreneurs who are already in business and those aspiring to enter the industry to sit up and invest in capital and human resources to further boost the packaged food market estimated to be worth 5.9 trillion rupees. In case they are willing, the Mysuru-based institute is all geared up to extend necessary guidance and help.

According to official sources, the country's food products manufacturing activity grew at the rate of 14.4 per cent during April-August this year compared to same period last year. Market for processed/packaged foods wearing a smile, meaning, consumer demand for the products steadily expanding is testimony to the consumers not cutting down on food consumption the way they would do other items during the slowdown. Barring exceptions, packaged foods are priced affordably, taking into reckoning the trade off between losing agro-produce and conserving through processing. Although processed foods under various brands include edible oils, dairy products, snacks, savouries, confectionery, biscuits, the field can be wider by including traditional dishes from different regions of the country, whose number is in thousands.

Bottom line for the food processing industry is not just to meet the growing demand for packaged foods, but to work with research institutions to achieve a zero-loss of agro-produce. India's players in the food processing sector have kept the tempo sustained, unlike other sectors, but the industry needs to move to FF mode.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

You may not know who the Nobel Prize will be awarded to next year. I have no clue either. But, uncle thought he was going to be an awardee. He was to turn 80 next year and had been claiming to be a potential winner for several years. He was the older brother of my childhood friend. Uncle was not particular about the subject for which he would receive the award. Instead, he said that the committee would find a subject or create one to honour him. Uncle was a modest man of multiple talents, with very little formal education. His room was always a workshop. To entertain the children in our neighbourhood, he would make and demonstrate small gadgets. He once made a little radio receiver with a crystal. Then there was the old machine with which he made dozens of gadgets; beyond the imagination of Fischertech, the manufacturers of the set. In the absence of calculators and computers, uncle also made a board with math sums; a small bulb would light when you touched the right answer! — K. Gnanamurthy in Deccan Herald

Electrically-powered witch's broom

Tokyo: Toyota's latest mobility platform called an "e-broom", looks like a futuristic witch's broom that users can ride to get around. Apparently, quidditch fans found the concept very intriguing.

But the e-broom isn't yet able to make quidditch players airborne, like in the popular Harry Potter books, but they are capable of propelling people on the ground, as long as they are wearing roller-skates. The e-broom is meant to be ridden like a witch's broom, only instead of relying on magic to whisk its users towards the sky, it relies on an electrical motor and a wheel at the bottom to propel its rider forward at moderate speed. It's not as impressive as we'd like it to be, but at least it's a step toward a real life quidditch broom.

"Experience first-hand mobility of the future! Modeled after a broom used by a witch to fly through the air, this mobility platform integrates people and machines, allowing users to reaffirm the enjoyment of mobility," a Toyota press release states.

Japan's xenomorph-like delicacy

Tokyo: Japan's Ariake Sea are home to a creature that is reportedly as delicious as it is disgusting-looking. Introducing the

"Warasubo", an eel-like fish that for obvious reasons is known as the "Alien of Ariake Sea".

One look at the warasubo fish is enough to explain its comparison to the fictional alien. It literally looks like the piston-like appendage that Giger's ferocious predator uses to pierce its victim's bodies and even metal. The warasubo is a terrifying-looking thing, especially in dried form, which only makes its use as an ingredient for ramen and other Japanese foods that much stranger.

Nearly blind, with translucent skin and featuring pointy teeth, the warasubo can be consumed either grilled or dried, whole or in powdered form.

HEALTH CAPSULE by Bron Smith

How much salt are we genetically programmed to take?

Humans lived for many centuries before salt entered the human diet as a food preservative. Humans are programmed to consume about 1 gram of salt per day. We now consume about 3,400 MG of salt daily. Is it any wonder that high blood pressure is common?

Intl. Conference at SDM-IMD from Nov. 15

Mysuru, Nov. 2- Shri Dharmasthala Manjunatheshwara Institute for Management Development (SDM-IMD), Mysuru, located at the foot of Chamundi Hill, will be organising 5th International Conference on the theme of Economic Growth and Sustainable Development: Emerging Trends on Nov. 15 and 16.

The conference has been organised to deliberate on the factors driving growth and causing slowdown in the economies in the emerging global open market. It also has the objective of reviewing the sustainability frameworks adopted in different contexts by the national economies, and the firms. The conference, organised in the backdrop of growing economic uncertainties and instabilities in significant parts of the world including India, will be inaugurated by Dr. Sebastien Chantelot. He is the Director of La Rochelle Business School (France) and Vice Dean-Academics of Excelia Group.

Industry professionals and internationally reputed academics will be delivering special lectures on different issues pertaining to the conference theme. The conference has an exclusive panel discussion on sustainability and business economy. Experts from different domains of sustainability are the panellists.

Members from academia, industry and research scholars from different parts of the country and abroad are presenting research papers or case studies for further deliberations.

Workshop on Development Banking

A pre-conference workshop has been organised on Nov.14 on the theme of Development Banking and Inclusive Growth: Emerging Trends. Srinivas Acharya, Managing Director of Sundaram BNP Paribas Home Finance, will be inaugurating the workshop. Experts from the field of development banking are the resource persons. The workshop is run through lectures, debates, and moderated panel discussion.

Interested academicians, research scholars and professionals may contact Dr. Venkatraja, Conference Chairperson on Mob: 94803-42652 or email to: iec2019@sdmimd.ac.in Really...?

- Military aircraft, such as fighter jets, have several parachutes that passengers can use in times of extreme emergencies. In such situations, jumping out of the plane may be their only option for survival. On the other hand, commercial aircraft, such as the Boeing 737, can carry as many as 200 people. Thousands of people around the world use these airliners every day to travel from point A to point B. So, why don't airlines provide parachutes on board these planes for the safety of passengers? Actually, there are several good reasons for that. Let's find them out. For starters, most regular passengers do not have the necessary parachute training. Commercial airplanes are not designed for skydiving.

Augment one AC 3 Tier Coach, Pantry Car to Ashokapuram-Belagavi-Vishwamanava Express

Sir,

The recent extension of Train No. 17326/17325 Ashokapuram-Hubballi-Ashokapuram Vishwamanava Express up to Belagavi via Mysuru, Mandya, Bengaluru, Tumakuru, Arsikere, Haveri, Hubballi and Dharwad is a welcome move. This extension has brought relief to many passengers between Mysuru - Belagavi and vice-versa through a direct train connectivity.

The operational run of Vishwamanava Express between Ashokapuram - Belagavi now stands at 18 hours in a single journey. As the run time extends beyond 12 hours from both the origin stations, there is now an urgent need to provide high-level comfort to passengers during day time. In addition to AC Chair Car, it is further suggested to augment an extra AC 3 Tier Coach for the benefit of passengers.

The move to augment an AC 3 Tier Coach will benefit many passengers intending to travel comfortably from Mysuru-Belagavi and vice-versa.

Further as the train travels entirely during the day time and as it arrives at its destination very late at night, there is a further need to augment one Pantry Car coach to provide catering facility for onboard passengers. The catering facility through the augmentation of a new Pantry Car coach will be helpful for long distance travellers on the entire leg of the 18-hour journey.

Hence, South Western Railway (SWR) authorities of Mysuru Division are requested to augment one AC 3 Tier Coach and a Pantry Car Coach to this train.

Priority for Kannadigas in private sector jobs

Bengaluru, Nov. 2 (KMS&BCT)- The Karnataka Cabinet on Thursday decided to direct all private investors in the State to reserve Group C and D jobs for Kannadigas. Group C and D jobs basically include clerical, floor-level jobs and attendants.

Madhuswamy

Law Minister J.C. Madhuswamy said that the new policy of job reservation in private sector will be applicable for new investors in Karnataka. "The aim is to generate more jobs for rural Kannadigas. The 2016 policy on the job reservation in private sector also has scope for providing higher rank jobs to Kannadigas," he said.

But apprehensive about the possible legal implications, the BJP Government is against making it mandatory though — stressing instead on 'priority', as in an affirmative action on the private job front for residents of the State.

Madhuswamy said, they cannot amend the rules making it compulsory for 'only' Kannadigas to be given jobs in the C and D cadres in the private sector. However, since the Government provides the establishments with water, power and land, they can only insist the private companies to give jobs for Kannadigas on priority.

The Cabinet also approved the new Textile Policy (2019-24) for the next five years. The Law Minister said that the Government will infuse Rs. 10,000 crore in the form of subsidy for the next five years to revive the textile sector.

The Minister said that based on directions of the High Court, the Cabinet decided to provide an additional Rs. 250 each for second set of school uniforms. Earlier, the Government was providing just one set of uniform for Government School students of first to eighth grade.

Rs.100 crore hitech Hospital for Kodagu

Following an extensive social media campaign over the demand for an Emergency Hospital for Kodagu, the Karnataka Cabinet has decided to build a hitech hospital in the district. The hospital will have 450 beds at an estimated cost of Rs. 100 crore. The place of the hospital, has, however not been announced.

Law Minister J.C. Madhuswamy said that the new hospital was mooted by Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha and the State Government has considered the demand. The tourist hotspot of Kodagu is a hilly district in the lap of Western Ghats and covers an area of 4,102 sq km. Even today, however, the district does not have a major hospital.

The residents have been forced to travel more than a hundred kilometres, either to Mangaluru or Mysuru, to avail benefits of advanced medicine, even in case of an emergency.

Many Kodagu residents and supporters of the cause point out the historical neglect faced by the district, in spite of it being the origin of River Cauvery. The demand for such a medical facility has been long-pending.

'Taali Bhagya' to bear wedding expenses of poor Hindu families

Bengaluru, Nov. 2- To help poor Hindu families who cannot afford the increasing cost of wedding expenses, the State Cabinet has launched 'Taali Bhagya'. It is a sequel to former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah's 'Shaadi Bhagya', a flagship scheme for minorities.

Muzrai Minister Kota Srinivas Poojari said mass marriages will be held on auspicious days of April 26 and May 24 next year (2020) at select temples that fall under the Muzrai Department. Temples would spend Rs. 55,000 per couple, which includes an eight gram gold taali (mangalsutra) worth Rs 40,000.

He said Rs. 5,000 would be given to the groom and Rs. 10,000 for bride for clothing and other wedding expenditure. The cash would be deposited in their bank accounts soon after the wedding. "The money is for traditional wedding attire," Poojari said.

Unlike 'Shaadi Bhagya' that was limited to BPL families, 'Taali Bhagya' has no income limit. Mass marriages will be held at 90 to 100 select 'A' category temples that get a high income and have good resources. This includes Kukke Subramanya in Dakshina Kannada and Chamundeshwari Temple in Mysuru.

"A month prior to the wedding date, couples who want to get married under the Hindu Marriage Act can register their names with the Department. A list of those getting married will be announced," he said and added that objections will then be invited to ensure the scheme is not misused. 'Taalis' will be procured in a transparent manner and Deputy Commissioners will be responsible for this, he said. Poojari said it is mandatory for parents of the bride and groom to be present at the wedding to ensure there are no "runaway" couples.

'Shubharambha' in Mysuru

It may be recalled here that in 2015, the then Mysuru Deputy Commissioner C. Shikha had launched 'Shubharambha,' a mass marriage programme planned by the District Administration at Srikanteshwara Swamy Temple premises in Nanjangud.

The programme, planned to promote simple marriage concept and bring reforms in the society, assumed significance in the wake of marriage turning a burden for many. The response to the scheme was good with over 116 couples tying the knot on the first year of its launch.

The scheme was later continued by D. Randeep who took over as the Mysuru DC. It was, however, discontinued.

What had triggered 'Shubharambha'

To understand the reasons behind the increasing number of farmers' suicides, the District Administration held interactions with families of deceased farmers at the Hobli level. Many of them said they had to borrow money to organise weddings of their children and were unable to repay it due to crop loss.

To stop farmers from further falling into debt traps, the then Deputy Commissioner Shikha decided to launch a free mass marriage programme.

Mayor disappointed over Rajyotsava being limited to publicity

SOM photographer Lakshminarayana Yadav among Dist. Awardees

Mysuru, Nov.2- Expressing disappointment that Kannada Rajyotsava celebration is limited to publicity, Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath batted for a more purposeful and sustained celebrations for the cause of Kannada land and language.

She was speaking after presenting District Kannada Rajyotsava Awards to achievers from various fields at a ceremony jointly organised by the District Administration and Kannada and Culture Department at Kalamandira here yesterday.

Observing that Kannada Rajyotsava celebrations is merely restricted to the month of November, Pushpalatha called for long-lasting celebrations that remains etched in the minds of the people.

Emphasising on the need for Kannada name-boards in all commercial establishments, business houses, educational establishments and all other enterprises, she said that all name-boards must have sixty percent space for Kannada wordings.

The Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) has decided not to renew the licences of such establishments which do not follow this rule, she pointed out.

Maintaining that Kannadigas were very much broad-hearted, the Mayor opined that Kannadigas have the inherent instinct to accept others and this has resulted in Bengaluru becoming a home to people from other States, thus becoming a sort of mini-India.

Stressing on the need for maximum use of Kannada in administration, she said that it is unfortunate that the influence of English has forced Kannada to struggle for survival in it's own land of Karnataka.

Confusion at the programme

With numerous Kannada activists thronging the stage, confusion prevailed for some time as the activists vied with each other in taking selfies with the awardees. This attitude of the activists proved a hurdle to the officials and people representatives to honour the awardees.

As the activists indulged in taking selfies, coupled with video-recording, the gathering was seen cursing them. Also as the cultural programmes commenced late, the teachers who had brought students from their schools had a hard time.

MP Pratap Simha too presented the award along with the Mayor. ZP CEO K. Jyothi, Assistant Commissioner Venkataraju, Kannada and Culture Assistant Director H. Chennappa and others were present.

Minister seeks co-operation of all to make Kannada part of our lives

District Minister V. Somanna offering floral tributes to the idol of Goddess Bhuvaneshwari in front of Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple at the Palace North Gate in city yesterday to launch Kannada Rajyotsava celebrations organised by the District Administration.

Mysuru, Nov.2- District Minister V. Somanna has called for the co-operation of everyone to make Kannada a part of our daily life and to ensure all-round development of the State.

He was speaking after inaugurating Kannada Rajyotsava celebrations organised by the District Administration, by offering floral tributes to the idol of Goddess Bhuvaneshwari in front of Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple at the Palace North Gate in city yesterday.

The Minister also hoisted the Kannada flag and received the guard of honour from the Police.

Noting that the State was once known as the Princely State of Mysore, Somanna recalled the contributions made by great stalwarts in the unification of Mysore State post-independence, which is now called as Karnataka State.

Regretting that Kannada is gradually losing it's influence in the State because of the growing love for English, he stressed on the need for sensitising our youth on the richness of our land, language, heritage and culture.

Recounting the struggle of great personalities like Alur Venkata Rao, Kengal Hanumanthaiah, S. Nijalingappa and many others, Somanna underlined the importance of passing on the rich heritage and history of the State to the coming generation. The younger generation must develop a passion for Kannada literature, culture and art, he added.

More funds for dist. under Nagar Vikas Yojana

Referring to the developmental works in Mysuru, Somanna said that the State Government will provide additional funds for Mysuru under Mahatma Gandhi Nagar Vikas Yojana.

Expressing confidence that the additional amount would help in the improvement of infrastructure and ensuring cleanliness in Mysuru, helping it climb up the Swachh Bharat rankings, Somanna said, a sum of Rs.150 crore has been earmarked for the purpose.

Speaking about the measures taken by the State Government to reach out to those affected by the massive floods that hit large parts of the State, he said that 4,977 houses were damaged by floods in the district and the Government has decided to release Rs.5 lakh for cases wherein the damage was total.

In all, Rs.14.05 crore has been released towards the rehabilitation of those whose houses were damaged and additional funds will be released in due course, he claimed and added that the district as a whole, has received Rs.30 crore for taking up flood relief and rehabilitation works.

'Will release Dasara accounts soon'

Recollecting the success of Dasara, Somanna said that the Dasara accounts will be released soon. Claiming that he is a open book and there was nothing to hide for him, he said that there is a delay in the computing of expenditures as the Deputy Commissioner, who was also the Dasara Special Officer, had gone on leave.

Referring to potholed roads, the Minister said that rains has caused the delay and filling up of potholes and other road repairs will be taken up soon.

Grand procession

Marking Kannada Rajyotsava, a colourful procession was taken out from Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple. The procession, in which hundreds of school students took part, passed through K.R. Circle, Sayyaji Rao Road, Ayurveda College Circle, Irwin Road and Ashoka Road, before returning to the starting point.

The procession was accompanied by a host of folk and cultural troupes, with a few artistes dressed as mythological and historical characters.

An artiste named Ramesh Shetty, dressed up in Kannada Flag colour and accompanied by his colourfully-decorated bi-cycle, marched in the procession, along with student B. Bhuvanth, who also decorated his bi-cycle with Kannada Flags, thus earning special attraction.

MLAs S.A. Ramdas, L. Nagendra and Tanveer Sait, Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath, Deputy Mayor Shafi Ahmed, Taluk Panchayat President Kalamma Kemparamaiah, Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G. Sankar, City Police Commissioner K.T. Balakrishna, SP C.B. Ryshyanth and other officials were present.

Remembering Kannada only on Rajyotsava

November 1st was Karnataka Rajyotsava, our State's birthday. It was on this day in 1956 that all Kannada-speaking provinces were brought together and named Mysore or Mysore State under the States Reorganisation Act. Then on November 1, 1973, it was renamed as Karnataka.

Every year to mark this day, our leaders after hoisting the yellow-red Karnataka flag, speak of promoting Kannada. Then the pro-Kannada activists say, "Outsiders must learn Kannada." Yet in Bengaluru 68% of its 1.2 crore population speak languages other than Kannada.

So, the question is why is Kannada losing out in Karnataka? North Indians in Chennai speak Tamil but in Karnataka they don't speak Kannada after living in the State for years. Why? Are Kannadigas too accommodative? Should Kannadigas insist on speaking Kannada thereby forcing the new migrants to learn the language like how Tamils have done? Or, should Kannadigas first speak Kannada themselves before asking others to do so? Because most Kannadigas speak their own dialects rather than Kannada.

For example, all Muslims in Karnataka speak Urdu unlike in Tamil Nadu or Kerala where everyone speaks the State language. In Kodagu district, people speak the local dialect called 'Kodava thakk'. In Mangaluru district, they speak Tulu and Konkani. In North Karnataka, they speak a mix of Kannada, Telugu and Marathi.

Even our leaders who speak about "protecting" Kannada abandon Kannada and break into broken English the moment a national TV channel thrusts a microphone before them. Why can't they reply in Kannada, the language they are most articulate in like politicians from other States?

Also many of our leaders and activists tend to be hypocrites, in the sense that while asking the poor to choose Kannada medium schools they send their own children to English medium schools. And who says that one cannot be proficient in Kannada while studying in English? Fanatic Kannada propagators must realise English is the language that has made us employable and competitive in the global market. It is the global business language, according to "Harvard Business Review" Report.

A 2014 Report from the Centre for Research and Debates in Development Policy states that men in India who spoke fluent English earned 34 percent higher wages. That is why our former Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy announced the introduction of English as a medium of instruction in 1,000 Government Schools in 2018.

His decision had led to a huge backlash and his partner in the Government Siddharamaiah too joined in and said, "The primacy of Kannada in Karnataka is non-negotiable. Kannada is everything in Karnataka. I won't allow English Medium Primary Schools run by the Government. I will speak to the Chief Minister." If he was so passionate about Kannada why did his children study in English Medium Schools?

Guess that is why Kumaraswamy's brother and then PWD Minister Revanna reminded everyone saying, "The same people who send their children and grandchildren to English Medium Schools oppose it when the Government introduces English as a medium for the benefit of poor and village children."

Now, according to data collated by Department of Public Instruction and published in 'The Hindu' in September 2019, as many as 26,443 students have been admitted to English-medium sections, as opposed to 12,034 to Kannada-medium in same schools.

The report says many Government School heads have attributed the poor student strength in Kannada-medium to the opening of English-medium sections. Owing to pressure from parents and members of the School Development and Monitoring Committee (SDMC), some school managements have opened more than one English-medium section! So Kumaraswamy was right, the poor know that English is a language that could fulfil their aspirations in a global economy.

But while it is a great asset to know English, it is important to know your regional language too from a sociological point of view. And if you want to make people speak Kannada, especially outsiders, then we need to make its learning accessible.

May be pro-Kannada organisations, instead of simply ordering that "outsiders must learn Kannada" should ask the Government to set up inexpensive spoken Kannada classes in all Universities. After all, spoken Kannada is more useful than written Kannada.

Here, young IT entrepreneurs have done more for Kannada than by various Kannada organisations and the Government. These entrepreneurs have launched Kannada learning apps and websites like 'Kannada Baruthe', 'Learn Kannada Quickly', 'Day-2Day Kannada' and 'KannadaGottilla.com.'

Even the Central Institute of Indian Languages (CIIL) based in Mysuru offers an online Kannada course for Rs. 500. Unfortunately one has to go through "script lessons" before getting spoken Kannada lessons.

In the end, the onus is also on the outsiders to learn the local language. Non-Kannada speakers, looking to settle down in Karnataka, will make life easy for themselves if they learn Kannada as they can effectively communicate with the Police, local Government or even in shops. Also knowledge of the local language will help one integrate into the community, else they will always be "outsiders."

More importantly, local language has an unmatched emotional and communicative value. That is why Nelson Mandela said, "If you talk to a man in a language he understands, it goes to his head. But if you talk to him in his language, it goes to his heart."

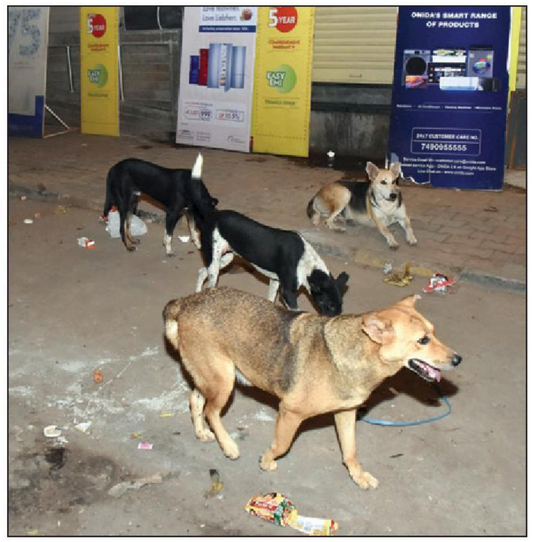
Stray animals rule the roads, 'dog' MCC

Laws to control stray dog and cattle menace do not have teeth



By S. Kenneth Shishir

Domesticated animals depend on humans for their everyday needs — food, water, shelter, veterinary care, love and more. Yet thousands of animals across city have no guardians to care for them, let alone a warm, comfortable place to curl up in at night.

Many suffer and die on the streets for lack of good homes. Animal homelessness is a complex crisis. Left to fend for themselves on the streets, animals often suffer and die after getting hit by vehicles, being attacked by other animals, succumbing to extreme temperatures, starving, contracting contagious diseases and facing other dangers. Many stray animals are poisoned, mutilated, tortured or killed in other cruel ways.

Animals are often abandoned by the people they depend on to care for them. Free-roaming animals (mammals) are a massive problem and the menace is completed by monkeys, especially the rhesus macaque, ubiquitous in India.

Living and being habitual with the problem

While city roads are already inadequate to cater to the needs of soaring human and vehicular population, the nuisance caused by strays is only adding to the woes of road users. Mysureans have lived with the problem of strays for years and there seems to be no relief at sight. They blame the Mysuru City Corporation's (MCC) failure for the rise in number of strays.

Next to dogs, stray cattle, horses and pigs play a major role in causing traffic bottlenecks. Owners of livestock have been constantly letting them out on roads mostly during day time to save costs on cattle feed. Though laws clearly say that fines can be levied on cattle owners who let loose their livestock, penalisation of offenders has been rare.

Past incidents of a woman being killed by a stray horse at Gayathripuram and a girl being mauled by dogs at a residential layout are some of the examples of the problems these stray animals cause.

It may be recalled that 55-year-old Parvathamma was killed when stray horses attacked her at Gayathripuram 1st Stage in city in December last year. In another incident, a two-and-a-half-year-old girl was injured when a stray dog attacked her while she was playing in front of her house at Chamundi Vihar Layout.

Residents of many localities say that the menace of stray dogs has increased creating a sense of fear. They alleged that despite lodging several complaints with the MCC, no action has been taken. They say that there are many stray dogs in their locality that are sick and this can cause the spread of diseases.

The MCC acts only when reports of stray attacks are highlighted by the media. The dog menace is not sudden or recent. It has grown steadily over decades. Officials have been totally callous about tackling it. Had they been serious, the population of dogs and number of dog-bite cases would not have grown in startling numbers. How much hue and cry has been raised in the media over the years, but all schemes to curtail this menace have failed, say residents.

Dogs are sterilised regularly, defends MCC

As per Animal Birth Control programme for Dogs (ABCD) rules implemented by the Central Government in 2001, the Municipal Corporation or local authority has the power to sterilise and immunise street dogs to contain its population.

MCC Veterinarian Dr. S.C. Suresh says that the civic body launches drives to sterilise dogs. Stray dogs are picked up from extensions and residential areas and are incapacitated to reproduce by surgical removal (neutering) of uteruses and ovaries from bitches and testes from males. After post-operative care, the dogs are left at the respective places from where they were picked up.

Also, there is a lack of an efficient survey system. Therefore, one cannot accurately say if there is a decrease in population. However, as more dogs are being sterilised, their population will decrease at a slow pace in the coming years, officials say.

Dog Squad

Dr. Suresh said that teams of skilled dog-catchers, equipped with sufficient number of nets have been formed to catch strays which are then loaded into a lorry and transported to veterinary hospitals for sterilisation. The neutered stray dogs are also administered anti-rabies vaccine before leaving them back, he added.

Culling stray dogs is banned

He said that capturing stray dogs and culling them is banned as the law does not permit it and hence the only solution left is to neuter the dogs so that the stray population comes down gradually. He further said that only those dogs that escape while being captured tend to reproduce again. But the puppies, after a certain age, are caught and neutered.

Dr. Suresh said that one can find pack of dogs near garbage heaps as meat and chicken waste is dumped by meat shops. As it is easy for the dogs to forage food there, they stay put at that place. He further said that if meat waste and leftover food are disposed of scientifically, the menace of dogs near garbage heaps could be avoided for which the residents and meat shop owners should co-operate.

Bovine intervention: Over 8 to 10 cows captured daily

MCC Veterinarian Dr. Suresh said that the MCC conducts regular operation to capture stray cows from 9 am to 4 pm daily. On an average, 8 to 10 cows are captured daily and are shifted to the cattle shed at Sewage Farm.

When the cattle owners come to the shed to take back their animals, a fine of Rs. 500 per cow is imposed on the owner and the cow is let off. But cattle owners again let their livestock on the road during night which is resulting in accidents. This is a never-ending cycle.

Rehab Centre for strays not to stray

Dog Cafe and Dog Park to be set up near Rayanakerehundi at an estimated cost of Rs.1.6 crore

In an effort to protect at-risk stray and free-roaming cattle, street dogs and horses, MCC has come up with a proposal to open a rehab centre in city. The Corporation has earmarked five-acre land to set up a rehab centre at its 40-acre property behind Mysore Public School near Rayanakerehundi on H.D. Kote Road, about 14 kms from city.

The issue was raised during the recently held Council Meeting. Members of the Council have agreed to the proposal put forward by Veterinary Department of MCC headed by veterinarian Dr. S.C. Suresh and team at an estimated cost of Rs.1.6 crore to open the rehab centre with a Sewage Treatment Plant Centre nearby.

MLA S.A. Ramdas has promised to assist in obtaining ready grants if a Detailed Project Report (DPR) is submitted to the Council.

In Mysuru city, around 20,000 stray cattle, 40,000 dogs and 1,000 horses (excluding MRC) including few groups of monkeys are said to be roaming free on the streets.

Dr. Suresh says: "Stray cattle, dogs and horses which are injured or sick will be treated at the proposed Rehab Centre where they will be provided all necessary facilities including food, water and shelter. There will also be a Dog Park along with walking path, swimming pool and playground with restaurant for visitors."

According to reports, MCC Commissioner Gurudatta Hegde is also keen about launching Dog Cafe and Dog Park at the proposed site and is trying to obtain necessary funds allocated to companies under Corporate Social Responsibility from IT-BT companies.

Sick stray horse rescued

An injured horse, which was lying on the road near DC's Office recently, was rescued by People For Animals (PFA). On seeing the horse, which was injured with bleeding from the legs, some Good Samaritans had called the Police Control Room. Abhaya team came to the rescue and provided first-aid to the animal. Later, PFA shifted the horse to the rehab centre in Bogadi.

There is only one animal shelter in city

4,496 dogs sterilised in 2018 at PFA

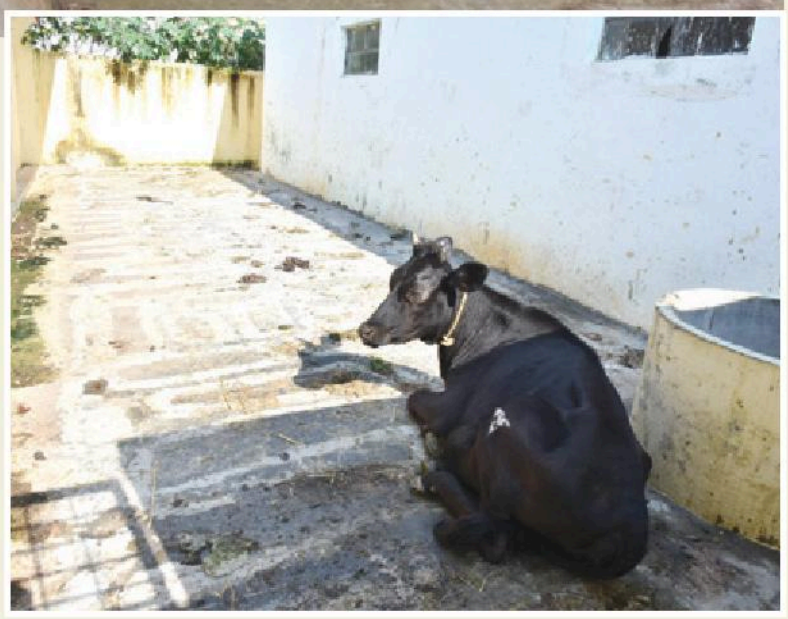
In city, there is only one animal shelter (Danagala Doddi) of MCC located in Sewage Farm premises and the earlier one that was near Sahakara Bhavan is shut. Earlier, dead animals were buried at the landfill in Kesare and now they are buried at Vidyaranyapuram landfill.

Sterilised dogs

People for Animals (PFA) has been involved in sterilisation of street dogs. According to its Managing Trustee Savitha Nagabhushan, over 10 to 15 stray dogs are sterilised at PFA daily for which Rs. 800 (per dog) is paid by the Mysuru City Corporation. In all, 4,496 dogs (both male and female) were sterilised in 2018.

After sterilisation, dogs are kept under post-operative care at PFA and only after they recover they are left in the place from where they were picked up. PFA has an adoption centre too where pets are dewormed, vaccinated and tested before being put up for adoption.

PFA has a shelter for sick and abandoned animals. It has a well-equipped clinic to take care of homeless animals. The clinic also serves pets, farm animals and wildlife and the doctors are on call. PFA provides outpatient treatment, complete health check up, animal birth control, x-ray facility, ultra sound facility, surgical care, gynaecological care, dermatology care, diagnostic laboratory testing, vaccination and ambulance service for animals.



Full-fledged Police Station to come up at Chamundi Hill

No environmental damage will be caused during development works: MP Pratap Simha

Mysuru, Nov. 2 (MTY&BCT)- A street along with food court and a full-fledged Police Station will come up next to the newly-built multi-level car parking complex atop the Chamundi Hill to accommodate vendors who have lost their shops in the demolition drive.

The proposal was announced by Mysuru District Minister V. Somanna during his inspection of the Hill yesterday. He said the ground-breaking ceremony will be held on Nov. 15. A shopping complex with 116 shops was recently inaugurated in the area to accommodate licensed vendors evicted in a massive drive. More than 200 shops were demolished in the drive and there is a need to accommodate the vendors in alternative shops for them to carry on with their livelihood.

The shop street will accommodate non-licenced vendors who have lost their shops in the demolition drive. According to the tentative plan for the structure, the shop street will come up in the area between the multi-level car parking complex and the main road and will have single floor shops facing each other with a pathway in between. The works are scheduled to be completed within three months.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha said that the total project will cost over Rs. 7 to Rs. 8 crore and the funds will be obtained from the hundi collection. "There is a provision for obtaining funds and half-an-acre of land will be utilised for this purpose. No trees will be cut for the purpose and there will be no environmental damage," he said.

"In the parking area, a bathing complex will be built to facilitate devotees who come from other pilgrimage destination like Sabarimala to bathe. Along with shops, a children's play area will be built," the MP added.

Full-fledged Police Station

During the visit, the need of a full-fledged Police Station atop the Chamundi Hill was felt instead of just a Police Outpost that is functioning atop the Hill now. Somanna said that necessary measures will be taken to establish a new Police Station and name an Inspector there. There is also a need of installing CCTV cameras at various points atop the Hill, the Minister said.

As of now, the Krishnaraja Police maintains law and order and the outpost has skeletal staff. As it is a sensitive place where thousands of devotees visit each day, there is an urgent need for a full-fledged Police Station, said MP Pratap Simha.

The Minister, who telephoned City Police Commissioner K.T. Balakrishna, said the District Administration will sanction land and the Police Department should arrange funds for the construction of the Police Station building. He also directed to ensure safety of the devotees atop the Hill.

Strengthening roads

Somanna said that steps would be taken to strengthen the roads leading to Chamundi Hill and the Nandi Statue atop it. A landslip had occurred on a stretch of the road leading to the Nandi Statue recently because of heavy rains, and traffic on the road has been restricted to facilitate the restoration work.

He said that he has spoken to Public Works Department to ensure that landslides do not recur at the spot by carrying out permanent restoration efforts, besides strengthening the road barriers. The technology being used in places (hilly terrain) where landslips have occurred in areas receiving heavy rain and the restoration model will be examined, he said.

Shift Sewage Farm

Others who accompanied Minister Somanna were Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, Chamaraja MLA L. Nagendra, Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath, Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G. Sankar, Mysuru City Corporation Commissioner Gurudatta Hegde and others.

Interestingly, Krishnaraja MLA S.A. Ramdas, who had spearheaded many agitations against the smell emanating from the sewage plant and had made it an election issue, was conspicuous by his absence. All the VVIPs were wearing face masks during their visit as they could not bear the stench.

Residents and schoolchildren alleged that the chemical spray to contain the stink was ineffective. Medical waste from many hospitals and nursing homes were being indiscriminately dumped at the treatment plant which should be actually incinerated at source.

Hearing the pleas, the Minister formed a Committee on the spot, headed by the Deputy Commissioner. Other members of the Committee are MCC Commissioner, MCC Health Officers, MP, all four MLAs of Mysuru, Mayor and the Deputy Mayor. The Committee has been asked to submit a report by Nov. 25 on the ways and means to curtail the smell from the plant. The Committee has been asked to look into shifting the plant if none of the measures work. It will look into three-month, six-month and one-year plan to mitigate the sufferings of the people.

Somanna also directed the MCC officials to strictly implement the 'waste segregation at source' immediately. "All household waste must be segregated at source from tomorrow and the proposal to set up waste plants near Rayanakerehundi and Kesare must be examined. There is no shortage of funds and the Government will release money if a proper and feasible plan is submitted," he said.

The Excel Treatment Plant was set up under JnNURM Project in 1996. Nearly 500 tonnes of solid waste is treated daily to produce compost. However, tonnes of untreated garbage go untreated, given that the city produces nearly 700-800 tonnes of waste. Residents said that the animal carcass from slaughter houses were dumped directly into the plant, leading to unbearable stench.

Farmer ends life in Mandya taluk

Mandya, Nov.2(Nagaiah&US)- A farmer Manjunath (40), son of Srinivas of Hulivana village in the taluk allegedly committed suicide this morning by hanging from a tree at the agricultural land he owned.

Manjunath was said to had grown sugarcane in his 3-acre land. He was reportedly waiting for the clearance permit for the 14-month-old crop to be cut and transported to NSL Sugar factory in Koppa and Bannari Amman Sugars. The two factories were said to be giving evasive replies for clearing the cane. An upset Manjunath was already burdened by medical expenses of his father in Bengaluru and decided to end his life.

Keragodu Police have registered a case.

Centre extends gun licence exemption to Kodavas till 2029

New Delhi, Nov. 2 - The Centre has decided to continue the British-era rule of exempting Kodavas and Jamma land holders in Kodagu district from obtaining licence for firearms such as pistols, revolvers and double-barrelled shotguns. The exemption has been given for 10 years, till 2029.

Kodavas worship weapons and guns are part and parcel of every festival and ceremony — be it birth or death — and the decision has been taken considering the cultural and religious sensitivities of the community. "Those who have been given the exemption are every person of Kodagu by race and every Jamma land tenure holder in Kodagu," according to a Home Ministry notification.

Kodavas are the only community in India who are exempted from obtaining arms licences. "The arms or ammunition carried or possessed by any person being from Kodagu by race and every Jamma tenure holder in Kodagu and herein exempted while residing or travelling outside the district of Kodagu shall not exceed one rifle with 100 rounds of ammunition for the same and one smooth bore breech or muzzle-loading gun with 500 cartridges or the equivalent in leaden shot and gunpowder," the notification said citing conditions of the exemption.

Case in High Court

Kodavas have been getting the exemption of obtaining arms licence since the British era and the Centre has provided exemption in the rules issued under the Arms Act, officials said. However, Captain (Retd.) Yaladalu K. Chethan, son of Yaladalu D. Keshavananda filed a Writ Petition in the Karnataka High Court on Jan. 8, 2018.

Chethan questioned the exemption granted by the Government of India to a certain class of people in the district in obtaining licence to possess firearms under Section 3 and 4 of the Indian Arms Act, 1959.

In his petition, (WP No. 1386/2018), Chethan, a resident of R.T. Nagar in Bengaluru, claimed that the continuation of the exemption, granted to some class of persons by the British Government in pre-Independent India in furtherance of their divide-and-rule policy, was unconstitutional, as it was based on irrational, fictitious and discriminatory grounds, such as race and ancestral land tenure.

Centre's stand

Responding to the notice issued by the High Court, the advocate representing the Centre had informed the Court that a committee had been constituted by the Ministry of Home Affairs to review the Arms Act, including notification granting exemption to people of Kodagu. After receiving comments from all stakeholders, the Centre has now extended the exemption for 10 years.

Bengaluru Kodava Samaja, Akhila Kodava Samaja and Federation of Kodava Samajas backed the move to convince the Home Ministry on retaining and extending the exemption. Prominent persons from Kodagu in New Delhi and Bengaluru including Machimanda Thamoo Cariappa, Maneyappanda Pavan Ganapathy, Palecanda Nanju Nanjappa, Ithichanda M. Devaiah, Annalamada Sunil Achaiah, Mukkatira T. Nanaiah and Maletira Dhyan Chinnappa played a key role and also worked to retain this provision.

Dy.SP Ganapathy's Suicide

Case transferred to Public Representatives' Court

CBI has submitted a B report, claims Virajpet MLA K.G. Bopaiah

Madikeri, Nov. 2- The Judicial Magistrate First Class Court (JMFC) in Madikeri has transferred the suicide case of Dy.SP Madappanda K. Ganapathy to Special Court for People's Representatives (Public Representatives' Court) in Bengaluru. The move comes after the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) submitted its investigation report to the Court.

The CBI submitted a 262-page report on Oct. 30 in the open Court. Ganapathy was found hanging at a lodge in Madikeri in 2016. The CBI probe was ordered by the Supreme Court.

M.K. Ganapathy had allegedly killed himself wearing his uniform at room number 315 at Vinayaka Lodge in Madikeri on July 7, 2016, after appearing in a local TV channel interview in which he had alleged harassment by K.J. George, the then Home Minister and two senior IPS Officers A.M. Prasad (Ashit Mohan Prasad) and Pronab Mohanty. Before his death, Ganapathy was posted at the Office of Inspector General of Police, Mangaluru.

M.K. Ganapathy

MLA claims 'B' report submitted: The content of the report is not known to local Police or even to Ganapathy's family as yet. But Virajpet MLA K.G. Bopaiah, quoting his sources, said that CBI officers had submitted a 'B' report in the case.

A 'B' report means cancellation report. The Police have not found any evidence against the accused to file a chargesheet and seek trial. In other words, 'B' report is the closure report after investigation made.

Ganapathy's family members said that said they were yet to get the copy of the report from the Court. The family said they would discuss on the steps to be taken with their advocate once they get a copy of the report. "But our advocate has clarified that we can question the report if it is contradicting our complaint", family members said.

"We do not know the exact content of the report. But according to a few sources, CBI officers have submitted a 'B' report. But if the report is contradicting the complaint, the complainants have the right and option to question it again in the Court. If it is a 'B' report, it will be an injustice to Ganapathy as it gives rise to a lot of doubts. If it is a 'B' report, I will urge Ganapathy's brother to submit an objection in writing," Bopaiah told reporters in Madikeri.

After the State CID submitted a 'B' report in the case, M.K. Kushalappa, father of Ganapathy, moved the Supreme Court in an appeal to hand over the case to CBI.

Ex-Minister Vaijanath Patil passes away

Bengaluru, Nov. 2 - Former Minister Vaijanath Sangappa Patil (82) passed away at a private hospital here, this morning.

Vaijanath Patil

As the President of Hyderabad-Karnataka Horata Samithi, Patil fought for Special Status to the most backward region and also for getting Special Status under 370 (J) to the region. Patil, elected twice as MLA from Chincholi in Kalaburagi, was also a one-time MLC from Kalaburagi.

He served as Minister in both Ramakrishna Hegde's and H.D. Deve Gowda's cabinets. A native of Aurad in Bidar, Vaijanath Patil had settled in Kalaburagi district. He was associated with both Janata Dal and Congress parties. Later, towards the fag-end of his political career, Patil was also associated with the BJP.

Patil was born on July 29, 1938 in an agricultural family at Hakyala village in Aurad. He completed his B.A from BVB Degree College in Bidar and LLB from SSL Law College in Kalaburagi. He was conferred honorary doctorate from Gulbarga University during its 31st Annual Convocation.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters and three sons including former Chairperson of MSIL Dr. Vikram Patil and ZP member Gautam Patil. Last rites will be held at Chincholi tomorrow.

Shantaveri Gopala Gowda's wife Sonakka no more

Bengaluru, Nov.2- Sonakka (88), wife of late socialist leader Shantaveri Gopala Gowda, passed away on Oct.31.

Sonakka

She was admitted to Jain Hospital at Vasantha Nagar in Bengaluru following complaints of respiratory problems where she breathed her last on Thursday.

A retired Government School teacher, Sonakka leaves behind her daughter Ila Geetha, son Rama Manohar and a host of relatives and friends.

Mortal remains were kept for public viewing at her Sadashiva Nagar residence in Bengaluru before being cremated at Hebbal electric crematorium yesterday.

Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa visited the hospital and paid his last respects to the departed soul. Former CM Siddharamaiah, former Minister PGR Sindhia and many socialist leaders visited the residence and paid their respects.

It may be mentioned here that Shantaveri Gopala Gowda, inspired by Ram Manohar Lohia, had entered Legislative Assembly in 1952, 1962 and 1967 from Thirthahalli Constituency.

Gopala Gowda Hospital in Mysuru

Dr. H.C. Vishnumurthy (late), a socialist and an ardent follower of Shantaveri Gopala Gowda, who was with him during his last days, has named the hospital established in Nazarbad, Mysuru, after him — Gopala Gowda Shantaveri Memorial Hospital.

Two Special bogies for women in MEMU train

Mandya, Nov. 2- Mandya MP Sumalatha Ambarish inaugurated two special bogies for women in the Mainline Electric Multiple Unit (MEMU) train for the benefit of women employees commuting between Mysuru and Bengaluru.

She cut the pink ribbon to flag off the train that had bogie number 66551 for women. The Mandya Railway Station was packed on Thursday, mostly by women, as the actor-turned-politician flagged off the train, which operates twice a day between Mysuru and Bengaluru.

Many women in Mysuru, Mandya and other towns along the way travel to Bengaluru for work, and prefer the MEMU train since it is efficient and economical. Of the 16 coaches, the first and the last bogies will be reserved for women.

Sumalatha said that the train would help hundreds of women working in garment units and other offices in Bengaluru. "Two bogies are reserved for women, in view of their safety. I had submitted a memorandum to the Minister of Railways Piyush Goyal and Minister of State for Railways Suresh Angadi in this connection. More coaches would be added, based on the demand," she said.

The train reached half-an-hour late to Mandya Station. Sumalatha was waiting at the Railway Office. South Western Railway officials had designated a specific spot on the platform from where Sumalatha was to inaugurate the reserved coaches.

However, the bogey she was to unveil stopped 10 metres short of the designated spot. The MP then requested officials to move the train so that it was in alignment with where she was standing.

Harikrishna Kumar is new KSCA Mysuru Zone Chairman

Mysuru, Nov.2 (VNS)- Harikrishna Kumar, Secretary, National Cricket Club, Mysuru, was elected unopposed as the new Chairman of Karnataka State Cricket Association (KSCA), Mysuru Zone, for year 2019-21. He took over the position from Sudhakar S. Rai, who was elected as the Convenor of KSCA Mysuru Zone in the recently held elections at KSCA Bengaluru.

Having started his professional cricketing career at the age of 15, Harikrishna Kumar has served Mysuru Zone in various capacities.

He was the Convenor of Mysuru Zone from 2007-2009. Harikrishna Kumar is also the President, Garner's Cricket Club in city.

He was also involved with the previous Committee headed by S. Balchandar in organising various tournaments during their tenure. While he was the Convenor, Harikrishna had successfully organised Ranji Trophy and other Tournaments of State and National repute.

BCCI Men's U-23 One-day Tournament-2019

Karnataka beat Madhya Pradesh

Mysuru, Nov.2- Inspiring batting performances by south-paw Luvnith Sujith Sisodia (86 n.o., 97b, 6x4, 2x6), B.R. Sharath (67, 76b, 6x4, 1x6) and Kishan S. Bedare (56 n.o., 65b, 6x4, 1x6) helped hosts Karnataka to register a facile six-wicket win over Madhya Pradesh in the ongoing BCCI Men's U-23 One-day Tournament-2019 at the SDNR Wadiyar Stadium here yesterday.

Earlier, put into bat, Madhya Pradesh scored 234 for nine in 50 overs. Ankush Praveen Tyagi top scored with an unbeaten 64 (71b, 4x4, 1x6). Useful contributions came in from Nikhil Shraddhan and Mishra 49 (90b, 4x4) and Atul Lakshmi Narayan Kushwaha (27).

In reply, Karnataka scored 235 for four in 45.3 overs to register a six-wicket win. Luvnith Sujith Sisodia and Kishan S. Bedare were involved in an unbroken 112-run partnership for the fifth wicket which paved way for Karnataka's six-wicket win.

Earlier, wicket-keeper batsman B.R. Sharath and Luvnith S. Sisodia added 101-run for the fourth wicket, when Karnataka were reeling at 22 for three at one stage.

Three-wicket win for Tamil Nadu

Wounded Tigers unlikely to roar in India

After all the salary hike saga, double whammy strikes Bangladesh Cricket as Tamim Iqbal, a dashing left-handed opener pulled out of the Indian tour at the eleventh hour citing personal reasons and Bangladesh's mainstay-Shakib Al Hasan, the captain, who was supposed to lead the team, was received a two-year ban from ICC for failing to report bookie approach - Not once, Not twice but thrice. Bewildered!!!

Prevailing over all the hardships, Bangladesh cricket team finally landed for a four-week long tour of India. They play two test matches and three T20s, starting tomorrow (Nov.3).

Currently, India is on top of ICC World Test Championship with 240 points after clinching a historic 3-0 series against touring South Africa. The team also surpassed the Australian record of staying unbeaten in 11 consecutive test series at home. Virat Kohli and Co. are a tough team to beat. Rohit Sharma, the new opener that India discovered of late, being in ominous form with three centuries in four innings and a double hundred amongst them, Ravichandran Ashwin, surpassing 350 test wickets to be the fastest Indian bowler to achieve that feat.

Bangladesh on the other hand has lost both its previous test series, one against Afghanistan and prior to that against New Zealand. To add to it are the spate of controversies. Bangladesh certainly has a tall order here in India.

On the positive side, Bangladesh cricket team will witness a red carpet welcome at the iconic Eden Gardens in Kolkata as they play their first ever Day Night Test Match. Yes, India will host the first ever D/N test match on Indian soil from Nov. 22. Pink ball will be used for the test match which is slated to start at 2 pm and end at 9 pm. Pink ball and dew seems to be a daunting task to negotiate for both the teams as none of them have played with it on earlier occasions. However, the first D/N test match was played between Australia and New Zealand at Adelaide oval in 2015, which Australia won by 3 wickets.

India, especially the new BCCI President Sourav Ganguly, is all agog to host the first D/N test match in India as he firmly believes this would turn the fortunes for Test cricket in the sub-continent.

He opens the ATM machine with ease, within seconds

Mysuru, Nov. 2 (RK&BCT)- A daring ATM theft was captured on CCTV camera where the thief is seen opening the machine with ease and expertise. The criminal has, however, been arrested and being probed.

The theft took place on Oct. 31 at the State Bank of India Automated Teller Machine (ATM) on Ashoka Road, in the heart of the city. A complaint was lodged by the manager of the bank on Nov. 1. Investigating the case, the Lashkar Police Station sleuths examined the CCTV camera and found a man entering the ATM and opening the front cover of the machine.

Twisting some hinges and pulling the knobs, the thief was able to open the machine within seconds. The thief looked like a professional who knew a lot about the machine. After opening the front cover, the criminal opens the inner parts of the machine. However, it is not clear that if he managed to steal the cash from the chest.

On the night of Oct. 31, the Lashkar Police had rounded off one person from Ashoka Road who was moving in a suspicious manner. He was brought to the Police Station for enquiry. The person told the Police that he was hearing impaired.

Later the Police found that this particular man had broken into the ATM machine and he also had acted as if he was visually impaired. Examining his records, the Police found that the man had gone to jail in a theft case at Gundlupet Police Station limits.

Eleven students take ill after eating chocolates

Mysuru, Nov.2 (YDS&US)- Eleven students of Nalanda English Primary School in Vidyaranyapuram here reportedly took ill after eating chocolates allegedly given by a student celebrating his birth day on Thursday.

The birthday boy is said to have given the chocolates to 31 classmates of 5th standard who ate them during the lunch break. After resumption of class, 11 students complained of stomach ache and a few vomited too.

The affected children were rushed in the school bus to Ramakrishna Hospital at St. Mary's Circle. Dr. K.V. Lakshmi Devi, Head of the hospital and Paediatrician Dr. Ganesh Sandesh treated the children who were later discharged after ensuring complete recovery.

On learning about the incident District Vector-bone Diseases Control Officer Dr. Chidambara and Vidyaranyapuram Police visited the hospital and collected the details and a complaint has been registered.

Dr. Chidambara said that the sample of the chocolates given by the student and from the shop where it was purchased would be sent to the laboratory for test.

12ft python rescued

People near a petrol bunk in Srirangapatna were in for a shock after seeing a 12ft long python yesterday. Soon, they informed 'Snake' Sultan, who arrived at the spot and rescued the reptile which weighed about 50kg and released it into the wild. A few people were seen taking pictures on their mobiles by dangerously wrapping the python around their necks.

WORD OF THE DAY

Fiduciary

Pronunciation: fuh-DOO-shee-air-ee.
Meaning: Of, relating to, or involving a confidence or trust: such as : held or founded in trust or confidence; holding in trust; depending on public confidence for value or currency.
Origin: Fiduciary relationships often concern money, but the word fiduciary does not, in and of itself, suggest financial matters. Rather, fiduciary applies to any situation in which one person justifiably places confidence and trust in someone else and seeks that person's help or advice in some matter. The attorney-client relationship is a fiduciary one, for example, because the client trusts the attorney to act in the best interest of the client at all times. Fiduciary can also be used as a noun for the person who acts in a fiduciary capacity, and fiduciarily or fiducially can be called upon if you are in need of an adverb. The words are all faithful to their origin: Latin fidere, which means "to trust."
Example: "A pet trust can be part of an existing trust or it can be drawn up separately. In a trust, you name the caretaker and you establish a fiduciary obligation for them to care for the pets in the manner and style you choose." — Charlie Powell

THE ODD WORD

Fagin

An adult who instructs others in crime.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Fly off the handle

Meaning: To indicate that someone has become irrationally angry due to a complete loss of self-control. Lose one's temper suddenly and unexpectedly.
Origin: "Fly off the Handle" is an American phrase that alludes to the way that an axe head can fly off its handle if it becomes loose. The expression was first seen in print in 1834, in Thomas C. Haliburton's The Attaché; or, Sam Slick in England: "He flies right off the handle for nothing."
Example: 'Try not to make Sam mad. He has a tendency to fly off the handle at the slightest provocation.'

QUOTE BOX

I don't trust people who don't love themselves and tell me, 'I love you.' ... There is an African saying which is: Be careful when a naked person offers you a shirt.— Maya Angelou

Mysuru Akashavani gets two State Awards

Mysuru, Nov.2- 'Me Too,' the play and 'Pada Samskruti,' Radio Series Programme aired by Mysuru Akashavani, have bagged second prize at the State-level Annual Award Contest of Akashavani for the year 2019, the results of which were announced on Oct.31.

'Me Too,' written by Vasumathi Udupa and produced by Prabhuswamy Malimath (co-produced by K.B. Meena), highlights about the physical and mental harassment meted out to women and children and how to face them with courage.

'Pada Samskruti' is a Radio Series Programme that apprised the listener about Kannada words, their origin and usage in detail. It is a brainchild of retired Asst. Director H. Srinivas, who is also the Producer of the programme (co-produced by S. Lakshminarayana).
